BCMPA CELEBRATES INDUSTRY SUCCESS AT UK PACKAGING AWARDS

The British Contract Manufacturers and Packers Association (BCMPA) celebrated the best in its industry with the sponsorship of the 'Co-Pack & Fulfilment Company of the Year' category at the recent 2019 UK Packaging Awards.

From a shortlist of five BCMPA accredited members, which included Carlton Forest Warehousing, Complete-Co-Packing Services and Lemonpath; Granby Marketing Services was announced as the winner by Rodney Steel, Chief Executive of the BCMPA, while a Highly Commended was awarded to Grotech Production.

Co-Pack & Fulfilment Company of the Year Granby Marketing Services has seen its contract packing client base increase significantly due to its growing reputation for quality and service. Judges praised Granby's excellent performance and strong story of growth, client retention and new client acquisition.

Grotech Production meanwhile has established and enhanced its reputation within the agrochemical and general chemical sectors, with judges highlighting the company's hugely impressive technological, financial and environmental achievements over the year.

"We are extremely proud to have sponsored the 'Co-Pack & Fulfilment Company of the Year' category at 2019's UK Packaging Awards and celebrate the important achievements of our sector amongst industry peers, retailers and brand owners," comments Rodney Steel. "The standard of entries was outstanding and reflects the growing relevance contract manufacturing, packing, fulfilment and logistics providers have across many different markets and applications."

“We congratulate both Granby Marketing Services and Grotech Production on their achievements and look forward to their continued success as a part of this dynamic and growing industry.”

Now in their fourteenth year, the UK Packaging Awards are recognised as the leading event in the UK packaging market, celebrating every aspect of the packaging supply chain.
